In offering this issue of The Lion to the student body of East Mississippi Junior College, it has been the aim of the staff to relate in word and picture, the happenings of this school year. It is with a feeling of reluctance that we complete the book, for we know it is made not only of paper and ink, but also of memories of happy college days and lifelong friendships.

To The Student Body of the Kemper County A. H. S. and East Mississippi Junior College:

I take this method to express my appreciation to the students of the Kemper County A. H. S. and the East Mississippi Junior College for the co-operation and for the fine spirit shown during the entire school year of 1940-41. We have indeed had a very successful year and I hope that every student has gained something that will be of permanent value during the years that lie out ahead.

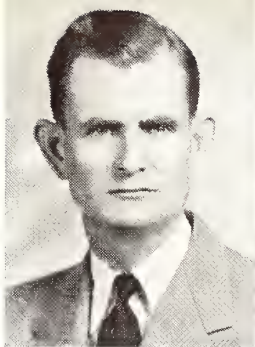

I shall not forget the pleasant associations that I have had with you this year. I shall not forget the individual student and the part he or she may have played during this session. It is my wish that every student, who does not complete his work, return for the session 1941-42.

We regret that the sophomores will not be with us again as students. Our best wishes go with them wherever they may be. No finer or more loyal group has ever gone from this institution. East Mississippi Junior College will always be indebted to them for their many contributions to college life.

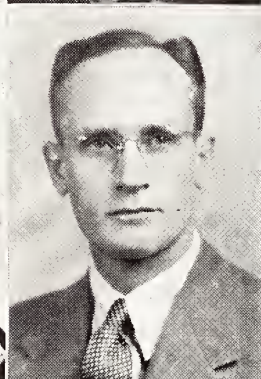

In conclusion may I say that it has been a pleasure to work with you, and if I can ever help you in any way I shall appreciate it if you will call on me.

Very truly yours,

Two years have almost passed. We who joined together our hearts and interests just yesterday, as freshmen, we who have faithfully served the best interests of the college, we who have profited by two years' instruction have come to our last milepost in this Junior College as the same youthful, but more sedate and wiser class. Although our activities have been varied, we have sought and attained an admirable spirit of unity, a spirit not to be broken by departure.

At the threshold of graduation comes that inevitable mood of contemplation. Thoughts of bygone days envelop the mind. Those yesterdays which brought happiness as well as hard work steal their way into consciousness. Pleasant associations must be left behind to become nothing more than happy memories.

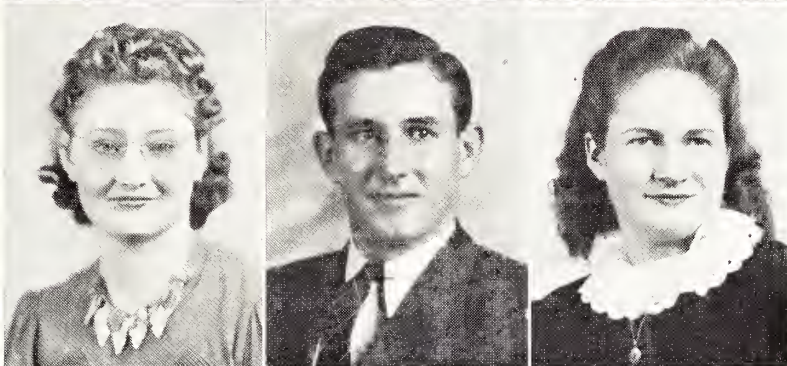

Graduation Day brings new visions, new hopes, new expectations from out the distance to become sudden realities.

New arrivals—bristling with new ideas, blazing with new ideals, burning with new ambitions—we Freshmen took our place on the campus. Our first year was truly dreaded for its ordeals at the hands of the Sophomores. In quick succession came matriculation, shaved heads, inferiority complexes (developed through playing maid and valet to our upper classmen), Home-coming and Freshman Day, and finally the long-anticipated Christmas holidays.

We gradually learned that the things which we feared were mostly imaginary and that college was not such a bad place after all. Even the classes were not so terrible as we had thought.

Soon spring came. As we were quite busy with organizations and clubs, we hardly realized that almost a year had passed. We began to feel that we had survived after all.

Pleasant memories—memories of our first year at E. M. J. C.—will come to us as we look over the pages of this Lion.

The Senior Class of K. C. A. H. S. has not spent the entire four years of high school together, but each member has had the same goal in mind toward which to climb. Each person has striven to take advantage of the opportunities that have presented themselves, and to prepare himself better for a useful and profitable life.

The future holds great opportunities as well as great responsibilities for the Seniors of '41, and, as we launch out into wider fields, we shall continue to manifest the same spirit of loyalty and co-operation that we have shown in High School. May every effort toward reaching the goal in life for which we work be crowned with success.

As the end of the year draws near, we, the Juniors, believe that we have crossed one mile stone. We have all enjoyed the new school and faculty, although it was a great step from Junior High to Senior High. After this year's experience, we hope to accomplish more as seniors.

THE COLLEGIAN, the official news organ of the East Mississippi Junior College, is published monthly by the students and contains news of interest from both the college and the high school. THE COLLEGIAN also prints original articles by students which merit publication.

This year THE COLLEGIAN joined the Mississippi Scholastic Press Association, and at its annual meeting at Mississippi State College our paper was rated First Class.

The staff has made every effort to make this volume of THE COLLEGIAN a credit to the college and to promote the fine school spirit for which it stands.

The Glee Club, with its renditions of classical and semi-classical music, folk songs, and negro spirituals, has added a touch of beauty to life on the campus. Under the direction of Miss Mary Leila Gardner, with Miss Dorothy Hollis as pianist, the club has accomplished much. Occasional programs were rendered in chapel and in vesper services. Special programs were presented at the March meeting of the Kemper County Teachers' Association and in neighboring high schools.

Band

Mr. C. E. McBride, by determination and constant practice, has whipped the band into good condition. In the fall the ability of its members to march in formation was displayed on the football field. In addition to giving a number of concerts on the campus, the band accepted invitations to play in several near-by towns.

Sporting handsome new uniforms, maroon in color, they competed with the Junior College Bands of the state at Jackson, and there proved themselves highly competent musicians.

Under Miss Owens' able leadership, Le Cercle Francais has made unusual progress this year. It has given pleasure to the entire student body with its interesting chapel programs, as well as to its members in the bi-monthly meetings. The study in the club of the habits, social customs, and institutions of France contributes much toward a better understanding of French and serves to make the students more language-conscious by promoting as much conversation in French as possible.

This year Le Cercle Francais carried its program further than the regular meetings. Not only has it sponsored a number of social functions, one of which was a trip to Meridian to see the French movie, La Vie de Pasteur, but also it has organized a French table in the dining hall at which nothing but French is spoken.

The Home Economics Club had as its slogan this year, "The Home Ec-ers, the best groomed girls on the campus." With this aim in view, visiting authorities in different fields—a dermatologist, a cosmetician, a coiffeuse, a manicurist, and a person skilled in directing exercises for good posture—were secured as speakers. The social feature at each meeting included the playing of games appropriate for the month. Not forgetting the nutritional side, refreshments were carefully planned in keeping with the party idea.

The club sponsored a Christmas tea for the student body, faculty, and townspeople; a Lions' club banquet; Trustees' luncheon; and the annual exhibit of the various Home Economics classes, which was in the form of a County Fair with booths displaying the work of the students.

MEMBERS

The International Relations Club has become one of the most popular and educational clubs on the campus. Its purpose is to instruct and enlighten its members on political events of current interest and importance. It does not support one view exclusively as to how conditions which now prevail throughout the world may best be treated, but it fixes the attention of students on the underlying principles of international conduct.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Jones, the Debating Club had a very successful year. Almost every member of the club participated in one of the series of debates held in chapel during the session.

In the debating tournament held at Delta State Teachers' College, our teams consisted of Anna Lee Lindley and Jack Armstrong on the affirmative team, with Dorothy Simpson and Wesley Grisham on the negative team. The question was—Resolved: That the United States Government should require universal military and defense training for all youths becoming of age.

Although our teams did not win the tournament, they showed evidence of excellent training and long hours of hard work.

ATHLETICS

Cheerleaders

We pause now to recognize and show our gratitude to our cheer leaders, for the services they rendered in boosting the spirit of the student body and upholding the morale of the squad.

Sponsors

The football squad elected a queen and eight sponsors at the beginning of the season. Two of these girls with the queen served as maids of honor at each home game, where they were introduced and given special recognition.

Football

Second Row: Victor Grushesky, Tom McCurley, Evon Blackwell, Bill Calvert, Loraine Stuart, Joe Hutcherson, W. R. Fulghum, Truman Sturdivant.

During the four years that Coach Knight has been with us, he has made a name for himself that will never be forgotten, not only here, but in surrounding territory. As it has been said of him before, he is interested both in the present and the future success of his athletes. He has taught the teams the value of good sportsmanship. It can be truly said that there are no other teams in the state that are more respected for their courtesy than his.

A word might well be said concerning T. S. Pigford and L. D. McDade, football managers, and Wesley Grisham, the basketball manager. They are most capable and conscientious managers.

As the players look through this, the "Dream Book" of 1940-41, and especially this part of it, a flood of memories will be brought back.

No one can know of the affection the team had for one another, but the players themselves. They were always in smiles whether they had won or lost.

The squad will also remember the practice before each game. It was hard to get the plays to perfection, but it was worth it and more to get in there and "fight it out" with an opposing team.

Although we did not have a very successful year in the percentage of games won, we had a more than successful year in showing the other teams that we knew the rules of true sportsmanship.

Even though we had few, if any, individual stars, that does not mean that the players were not trying. They worked as a whole and not for individual praise or glory. It was one for all and all for one.

The Boys' Basketball team went through a rather successful season this year. They played a total of 17 conference games, winning 12 and losing 5. They also played seven exhibition games, winning 5 and losing 2. This gives them a total of 24 games played and 17 won.

They finished with the third best percentage of games won in the Junior College Conference.

Frank Hodges at forward's position was the outstanding player of the season. He was high scorer with 340 points, an average of 20 points per game, and was chosen as forward on the All-State Junior College first team. Evon "Red" Blackwell was chosen as guard on the All-State Junior College second team. Martin Hatcher received honorable mention for his excellent playing.

Our first game in the tournament was played against Raymond. We triumphed by a six-point margin. That threw us against Moorhead, the State Champions for the past four years. By defeating Moorhead in the semi-finals 36-28, we received a position in the final slot against Ellisville for State Championship, to stand a defeat of one point.

All the players were doing their best, but "Lady Luck" was against us, and we're not State Champions today.

Although the girls' team didn't go so far toward being champions as expected, they are to be commended for their excellent playing and good sportsmanship.

Under the direction of Coach Knight, the girls have improved one hundred per cent over last year.

With only four members of the team graduating, we are looking forward to a very successful season next year.

The girls played 16 games, won 12, and lost 4 to finish fourth in the state on the basis of games played.

High School Football Team

Second Row: Lloyd Adams, Sam Lack, Jack Boyd, Harmon Knight, Bill Sheppard, Billy Lanier, Leon Batey, Troy Watkins.

The Scooba High Mudcats enjoyed an exceptionally fine season in six-man football—led by such stars as Carpenter, Aust, Lanier, and Adams in the line and Knight, Lockley, and Watkins in the backfield. The Mudcats won eight games and lost none, scoring a total of 227 points to their opponents 59.

On this record the Scooba High boys lay, at least, a good claim to the State Six-man Championship.

Second Row: Cherry Knight, A. C. Grantham, Edward Kitchens, Jack Tubb, Dan Meacham, John Persons.

Third Row: Billy West, Coach Wiggins, Malcolm Hopper.

The Scooba High boys had a fairly successful season in basketball, the leading players being Knight, Adams, Lockley, Watkins, and Boyd. Boyd was voted all-sub-regional center. The boys advanced to the semi-finals of the sub-regional only to be defeated 27-25 by Dekalb, who later won the tournament.

If It Happened, It's In Here

Race Of Century Is Staged At E. M. J. C.

Under the able coaching of Roy Knapp, E.M.J.C. has the distinction of having three claimants for the title of the human flash. This was settled (or unsettled) about two months ago. The setting for the race, which took place one January night, had a quaint beginning. We haven't the details yet, but it is rumored it started in our local gym. There was much discussion as to the fastest man in this tourney. The favorite in the contest turned out to be none other than Otho "Bullet" Britt. But James "Lightning" Bennett, who is so fast it is reputed he can turn out the light and get in the bed before it is dark, was a close second in the betting. The "dark horse" in the race was Carlton Prather who is so swift he is generally known as "the little man who wasn't there." From the gym they started each with an enthusiastic supporter on his arm. The time taken up in getting to the starting point was spent in jockeying for a choice position. As they had to go to the other side of town to get started they all seemed to get nervous. (I don't blame 'em). For at this moment Bennett "jumped the gun," technically speaking. But from all authentic reports he jumped the yard fence, the ditch, and sundry obstacles that lay between him and safety (I mean the finish line). While "Lightning" was evacuating that part of Scooba, Britt and Prather were using this time to say a last farewell to their devoted followers. At the sound of the umpire's gun (or was it guns?) the two remaining contestants sped into action. Realizing during the first one hundred yards that the referee was using something besides blank shells, they forgot about glory of winning the race and headed for parts unknown. As these small persuaders began dropping around them, the race then and there became a local version of the non-stop flight to Paris. Our foreign correspondents reported them passing through Macon ten minutes later. No prizes could be awarded, because the contestants could not be located for a week afterwards.

SOCIAL CIRCLE HOLDS COFFEE PARTY

Messrs. William Brown, J. W. Richardson, and Grady Collins continued to confine the social spotlight this week to their room, where they held another get-together of the infamous Coffee Club. "Spat" Brown acted as host and favored as guests, besides members, Donovan McKee and "Quack" Weaver. A delightful tete-a-tete was enjoyed while the host served the ruffians dainty refreshments (sardines and crackers) with coffee. And what coffee! Richardson was asked to give the secret formula for this wonderful brew, and he modestly recited the following recipe. Take a handful of coffee, wrap in an old towel (that explains the wonderful aroma), and insert in a half-gallon bucket of boiling water. Cover with a Sears Roebuck Catalogue (that gives it that Maxwell House taste), and let simmer until one hand of poker is played. After this bit of information was assimilated, favorite recipes were exchanged and then the group adjourned.

RUMOR BECOMES A REALITY IN SURPRISE WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Omera Warren, daughter of Mrs. L. C. Warren of Damascus, to Mr. Leslie Dodson of Columbus has proven of much interest here. This much-publicized union took place at the local brush arbor meeting, at ten o'clock, Saturday night. The bride arrived with a lantern and her shoes under one arm and her prospective husband clinging to the other. There were but fifty-seven people present, as only the immediate families attended.

It was a simple single ring ceremony before an improvised altar, blanketed with greenery of various hues, against which stood flower baskets of wild honeysuckles. After appropriate tears were shed, the bride was given away, and the couple was wished a very happy honeymoon and a prosperous crop year. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party buggied to Damascus, where the bride's sister, Sue, held open house in their honor.

YOU FIGURE THIS OUT

For each question you answer correctly, credit yourself with 68/7 points unless March has 17 days. In that case give yourself 87/6 points if April comes before Thursday. It is as easy to make a perfect score as it is for the cosmetic industry to go bankrupt.

1. Why is Clarence so GREEN? Does Ruby want MOORE dates now?
2. Why does Maxine love FRIDAY so much, when Margarette says the WEEKS don't make any difference to her?
3. Why do George and Virginia say the CAIN and BEANS speak for the fertility of Prairie, when Billie says there is NUNN?
4. When Dorothy says this is a nice school at which to PARK, why does Elzie Lee quip that you have to be a MIZEer to stay here?
5. Will Delmon remain a COOK if Russell STOKES the fire? If so, Robert wonders where the ASHES will be emptied.
6. If Eupal were the HOOD and Papoose were the ENGINE (Injun), Clovis and Raye ask how much MOORE STEELE would it take to make a car?

LIARS' CLUB IS ORGANIZED IN ROOM NO. 3

Twenty-five lovers of tall tales met in the home of J. R. Weaver (Cell No. 3) Thursday afternoon and enjoyed a forum in which they discussed their hobby. That genial gentleman of ceremonies, George Cain, was the feature speaker. He, an authority on the subject, gave the history of "How the Truth is Made Flexible," and the group discussed many side lights in connection with it. This was the first formal meeting of its kind held at E.M.J.C., but those who attended it feel that it was so worthwhile that many more gatherings will probably be held in the future. Meck Murphy has a fine collection of trophies, won because he was very proficient in this line. The local orchestra made music in the McDade manner.

BOOSTERS

In Appreciation

As the most essential factor for success of any organization is co-operation, we wish to express our appreciation to the student body and to the administration for the full co-operation they have given us. We realize that without it the publication of this Annual could not have been a success.

The 1941 Lion was made possible by our loyal supporters throughout Kemper, Noxubee, and Lauderdale Counties; Mr. O. N. Pruitt, our photographer; Mississippi Engravers; and the Tucker Printing House. To them goes special commendation for their invaluable assistance.

A freshman (leaving for the Spring Holidays) prayed to the Lord that he'd catch his train, and as he ran toward the station he stumbled over the curb and fell.
